Responsibilities

As the employer you have overall responsibility for health and safety (Box 1). You can delegate responsibility for day-to-day tasks to someone else, eg a manager or supervisor (Box 2). Make sure they keep you informed about health and safety matters: they are still your overall responsibility. You can delegate specific tasks to individuals in your organisation, by workplace area or by topic (Box 3). Responsibilities should be clearly set so that if there are any health and safety concerns, they can be reported to the right person.

Employees also have legal responsibilities to take care of the health and safety of themselves and others, and to co-operate with you to help you comply with the law.

1 Overall and final responsibility for health and safety is that of

Chairman

2 Day-to-day responsibility for ensuring this policy is put into practice is delegated to

Manager

3 To ensure health and safety standards are maintained/improved, the following people have responsibility in the following areas

Name	Responsibility
Manager	Volunteers, Machinery, Conservation Volunteers Powered and non-powered hand-held tools, Safe Schemes of Work for work parties; Safeguarding
Education/Engagement Engagement Officer	Education and Community Engagement Visits, Safeguarding

4 All employees have to:

- co-operate with supervisors and managers on health and safety matters;
- not interfere with anything provided to safeguard their health and safety;
- take reasonable care of their own health and safety; and
- report all health and safety concerns to an appropriate person (as detailed in this policy statement).
